THE ESSENTIAL GUIDE FOR STUDIERS

LIEUTENANT – PLATOON COMMANDER

P.G. 202-13

Effective 04/05/16

1. Be responsible for all command operations during the tour performed
  - a. Perform duties of desk officer as outlined in P.G. 202-14, “Desk Officer,” if assigned to a Patrol Services Bureau precinct

Note: At the discretion of the precinct commanding officer, lieutenant platoon commanders may perform field duties as specified in step 26, below, provided that two or more sergeants are assigned to duty with that platoon, one of whom has been designated as patrol supervisor.

☆In order to go out on patrol when assigned to a precinct, the platoon commander needs two conditions: (1) the permission of the C.O. and (2) at least two sergeants must be working that tour, one of whom is assigned as the patrol supervisor ☆

- b. The lieutenant platoon commander will not ordinarily perform the duties of the patrol supervisor, and will remain responsible for ALL duties listed in this procedure
- c. Identify conditions to be addressed by members working the platoon on a continuing basis
- d. Allocate, based upon conferral with special operations lieutenant, all resources available for the platoon, including anti-crime, street narcotics enforcement unit(s) and peddler enforcement personnel

Note: When a lieutenant platoon commander is performing the duties of the desk officer in a Patrol Services Bureau precinct, he/she will remain at the desk area of the command facility. However, in the event of an emergency situation occurring in the field, the lieutenant platoon commander may respond to the scene, e.g., mobilizations, homicides, firearms discharges by uniformed members of the service. A Command Log entry will be made indicating the time of departure, the location, and the details of the event requiring the lieutenant platoon commander’s presence. Lieutenant platoon commanders will remain on the scene only as long as their presence is required, upon which time they will return to the command and resume the duties of the desk officer. In the lieutenant platoon commander’s absence, a supervisory officer will assume the responsibilities of the desk officer.

2. Report to the desk officer at the start of tour for entry in the Command Log as present for duty
  - a. Sign Command Log at end of tour
3. Perform duty in uniform
4. Supervise and review actions of patrol supervisors to ensure compliance with Department policies and procedures
5. Participate as a member of the precinct management team
6. Advise and confer with commanding/executive officers, operations coordinator, special operations lieutenant, integrity control officer, squad commander and BRAM commander, if appropriate, on matters of importance, unusual arrests or occurrences, personnel and integrity concerns, and other conditions requiring their attention
7. Confer with integrity control officer regarding personnel, civilian complaints, sick records, overtime concerns and integrity issues
8. Confer frequently with the special operations lieutenant regarding command crimes and conditions
9. Confer with lieutenant platoon commander or patrol supervisor from previous tour, at start of tour
